

Make your next event historic at . . .
The State Museum of Pennsylvania

Step Away from the Ordinary . . .

Whether you are planning a conference for your employees, a drama production for school children or an elegant dinner party for your distinguished guests, The State Museum of Pennsylvania offers unique settings and services, that will make your event something special. We will gladly provide a venue for holiday parties, family reunions, business meetings, wedding ceremonies and receptions and so much more!

We offer an Auditorium, fully equipped with a large screen for power point presentations, a sound system and theatrical stage lighting, as well as three floors of Museum exhibits, which can enhance any event. Offer your guests something they will remember for years to come.

The State Museum's Memorial Hall offers an inviting atmosphere for any occasion. Memorial Hall holds up to 200 people with room for eating, socializing and celebrating.

For luncheons, small meetings, intimate receptions or rehearsal dinners we recommend the charm and historic setting of our Village Square area.
