Romantics of All Ages Can Celebrate Valentine's Day at The State Museum of Pennsylvania, Sunday February 11

Harrisburg, PA - The State Museum of Pennsylvania, who brought visitors The Night of the Great Pumpkin and Noon Year's Eve, invites families and friends to the first ever Valentine's Day Celebration on Sunday February 11. Moms and dads, grandparents and other family members can celebrate with the little ones to the tunes of singer/guitarist "Louie," and then spend some quality play time in Curiosity Connection™. "Louie" is a high energy performer and a great favorite with the younger audience at the museum. Valentine's Day-related crafts, a special planetarium show, refreshments and live animals will also be featured from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Admission is $8.00 for adults and children and $6.00 for Pennsylvania Heritage Society® members. Tickets are available in advance by calling (717) 772-6997. Please have your credit card ready. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

For detailed information on the Valentine's Day Celebration and other museum programs call The State Museum of Pennsylvania at (717) 787-4980, or visit our website: www.statemuseumpa.org

The State Museum of Pennsylvania, located at 300 North Street, Harrisburg, is one of 25 historic sites and museums administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. Museum hours are Tuesday through Saturday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday 12 noon to 5 p.m. Individuals who need special assistance should call (717) 787-6778 or the Pennsylvania TDD relay service at (800) 654-5984.
